

APPENDIX OF SELECT COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS

Creates within legislative branch black health care commission (P. C. 1039): Representatives Love, Dixon, B. Turner (Hamilton).

Continues study of problems of homeless (SJR 171): Representatives Bell, Kernell, Peroulas, Robinson (Hamilton), Robinson (Davidson).

Establishes a task force to evaluate state's black history and cultural education (SJR 264): Representatives Dixon, Purcell.

Continues HJR 240, to study the licensing of contractors and subcontractors (SJR 421): Representatives Head, Nuber, Wix.

Creates special joint committee for utilization of ancillary health care (SJR 423): Representatives Starnes, Holcomb, Jackson, Armstrong.

Provides for study of desirability of establishing general public assistance program in Tennessee (SJR 440): Representatives U. Jones (Shelby), Jackson, Duer, Starnes.

Creates study committee to investigate establishment of capital fund for arts (SJR 443): Representatives Wheeler, Hassell

Creates special joint committee to study rising health care cost (SJR 455): Representatives Starnes, Chiles, McDaniel, Herron.

Establishes special select committee to study integrated computer system for courts (SJR 471): Representatives Copeland, Curlee.

Continues special joint committee created by SJR 40 studying delivery system for alcohol and drug abuse prevention and treatment services (SJR 492): Representatives Dixon, Duer, Jackson.

Directs council on pensions and insurance to conduct study relative to state sick leave policies (SJR 594). (Council on Pensions and Insurance: Representatives Bragg, Clark, Copeland, J. Henry (Roane), Rhinehart, Ridgeway.)

Extends the special committee on equal pay for equal work for state employees created by House Resolution 75 (HR 95): Representatives Collier, J. Henry (Roane), Kent, Love, Pruitt.

Establishes special committee to study Tennessee's dropout rate (HR 97). House Joint Resolution No. 329 adopted, therefore void.

Select Committee Appointments, continued

Creates special committee to study Tennessee Apiary Law (HR 108): Representative Stallings, Hobbs, DePriest, J. Henry (Roane), Gunnels, Nicely.

Requests study on effects of slow moving highway traffic on highway safety (HR 121) (Members of House Transportation Subcommittee on Highway Safety: Representatives Armstrong, Bragg, Buck, Good, Halteman, Head, Ussery, Wood, Yelton).

Creates House committee to study earthquakes (HR 123): Representatives Kernell, Pinion, Holt, Crain, Moore, King, R. Jones (Shelby), Williams, Nuber.

Creates study committee to study proposed state agency for deaf and hearing impaired (HR 135): Representatives DeBerry, Peroulas, Austin, B. Turner (Hamilton), Haun.

Establishes special committee to study agricultural ethanol production (HR 223): Representatives Stallings, DePriest, Hobbs, Cole, Gunnels, J. Henry (Roane), Niceley, Robinson (Washington).

Directs Select Oversight Committee on Education to study requirement of identification cards for children grades K-12 (HJR 230): Representatives Bragg, Copeland, Davidson, Rhinehart, C. B. Robinson (Hamilton), Starnes, Whitson, Clark.

Creates joint committee to study school dropout rate (HJR 329).

Creates joint committee to study incompatible zoning around airports (HJR 360): Representatives Anderson, Kisber, Ridgeway, West.

Creates special joint committee to study Registry of Election Finance (HJR 522): Representatives Naifeh, Kisber, Chiles.

Creates special joint committee to study fire and life safety codes as relate to multiunit low income housing for senior citizens (HJR 533): Representatives Bell, Good, Niceley.

Continues special joint committee to study conservatorships, guardianships and estates of incompetents created by HJR 131 (HJR 583): Representatives Purcell, B. Turner (Hamilton), C. Turner (Shelby).

Creates special joint committee to study ways to improve and expand role of community education (HJR 588): Representatives Odom, Halteman, Davidson.

Creates special joint committee to study rights of law enforcement officers under investigation (HJR 724): Representatives Peroulas, Cain, Buck.

Select Committee Appointments, continued

Creates study committee on proposed state agency to provide services to hearing impaired (HJR 785): Representatives DeBerry, Haun, Austin.

Directs examination of disclosure of juvenile justice records and negative impact on employment opportunities of reformed youth (HJR 786): (Select Committee on Children and Youth: Representatives Bragg, Collier, DeBerry, Givens, Purcell, Starnes, B. Turner, Whitson, Williams.)

INDEXES