AMEND <SB>

House Joint Resolution No. 392*

by inserting the following language before the last resolving clause:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the department of transportation shall not erect the sign(s) provided for by this act until the local government having jurisdiction over the location of the sign(s) pays to the department a fee equal to the amount necessary to defray the expense of the sign(s), as determined by the department.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That if the sign(s) provided for hereunder are to be located on a road other than a road designated as an interstate highway, the local government having jurisdiction over the location of the sign(s) may, in lieu of paying the fee required by section (), supply to the department of transportation the sign(s) provided for in this act. Any sign(s) supplied by local government must be manufactured in accordance with standards established by the department of transportation, including, but not limited to, the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices.
