

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2286 - HB 2669

February 25, 2002

SUMMARY OF BILL: Clarifies that a person age 18 or over but under the age of 21 who has committed the offense of underage driving while impaired is eligible for diversion. Clarifies that a judge may suspend the fine or punishment for underage driving while impaired committed by a person age 16 or over but under 18 years of age.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenues - Not Significant

Decrease Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant

Estimate assumes:

- to the extent a judge suspends the mandatory license suspension under the provisions of the bill, the state will experience a decrease in revenues from license reinstatement fees estimated to be not significant.
- to the extent a judge suspends the fine under the provisions of the bill, local governments will experience a decrease in revenues from such fines.
