AMEND Senate Bill No. 1933*

House Bill No. 1421

by inserting the following as a new, appropriately designated subsection to Section 11 of the bill as amended:

() Notwithstanding anything in this part or in any other provision of law to the contrary, any county or municipality may regulate the installation and placement of facilities within the public rights-of-way pursuant to this part, including but not limited to the installation or placement of video or cable facility boxes, for the primary purpose or sole purpose of addressing the aesthetic concerns of the community.
