AMEND Senate Bill No. 1106

House Bill No. 735*

By deleting in its entirety subsection (c) of the printed bill and by substituting instead the following:

(c) It is a defense to prosecution under subsection (b) that:

(1) The owner reviewed, prior to allowing the person to operate the motor vehicle, a driver license issued to the person by any state, regardless of whether such license subsequently proves to be invalid; or

(2) An emergency situation exists. For the purposes of this section an emergency means an imminent danger to life, health, or property, whenever there is a substantial likelihood that loss of life, health or severe property damage will result if transportation is not immediate.
