

HOUSE RESOLUTION 300

By Fitzhugh

A RESOLUTION to commend Amanda Mary Martin for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Mary Martin is one such individual who has distinguished herself in her role as a legislative intern for Representative Craig Fitzhugh and the House Finance, Ways and Means Committee; Amanda's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators she assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a student at Lipscomb University, where she is highly regarded by her peers, Amanda has maintained a 4.0 grade point average while majoring in Political Science, minoring in German, and participating in numerous extracurricular activities, including Phi Alpha Delta and Delta Omega, both of which she serves as Vice President; and

WHEREAS, Amanda serves as the Chief Justice of Tennessee Intercollegiate Supreme Court, for which she also serves on the Executive Council; and

WHEREAS, a graduate of Oneida High School, Amanda has also attended Roane State Community College and plans to graduate from Lipscomb University in December of 2010; she has also studied abroad in Vienna; and

WHEREAS, no stranger to accolades, she has been a Presidential Scholar and National Merit Finalist and has been on the Provost List since 2007; she will be inducted into the Alpha Chi Honor Society in November 2010; and

WHEREAS, after graduation from college, Amanda plans to attend law school and use her education and experience working as a child advocate to fight for the rights of children; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize herself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee state government and to further her studies, Amanda Martin brought her many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2010 session of the One Hundred Sixth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2010 legislative session, Amanda has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Martin has performed her many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Amanda Mary Martin for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Fitzhugh and the House Finance, Ways and Means Committee and extend to her our best wishes for every future success.
