Membership on the panels may rotate in a manner determined by the presiding judge; provided, that no members shall sit on both the hearing and investigative panels for the same proceeding.

(2) A hearing panel has the duty and authority to rule on prehearing motions, conduct hearings on formal charges and make findings, conclusions, and impose sanctions or dismiss the case.

(b) The quarterly report shall not reveal the name of any judge against whom a complaint has been filed but shall indicate if more than one (1) complaint has been filed against a particular judge. However, if more than one (1) complaint has been filed against the same judge, the chairman of either judiciary committee may contact the presiding judge of the board for the purpose of inspecting all complaints filed against such judge to determine if further action by the general assembly is warranted.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 17-5-304, is amended by deleting the section in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

(a) Disciplinary counsel shall evaluate all information coming to the counsel's attention by complaint, upon the request of any member of the board or from any other credible source that alleges judicial misconduct or incapacity.

(b) The complaint shall allege specific facts directly relating to the alleged misconduct or incapacity of the judge in question. All complaints shall be reviewed by disciplinary counsel and if, in the judgment of disciplinary counsel, the complaint establishes probable cause that the conduct complained of occurred and violates § 17-5-302, counsel shall, subject to review by the investigative panel pursuant to subdivision (c)(3), conduct a preliminary investigation. If the disciplinary counsel believes the complaint fails to establish probable cause that either the conduct occurred or the conduct constituted a violation of § 17-5-302, counsel shall, subject to review by the investigative panel pursuant to subdivision (c)(3), dismiss the complaint, or if appropriate, refer the matter to another agency.

(1) Disciplinary counsel may conduct interviews and examine evidence to determine whether the specific facts alleged are true and, if so, whether the facts establish probable cause that a violation of § 17-5-302 has occurred; provided, that no subpoena shall issue to obtain testimony or evidence until the investigative panel authorizes a full investigation pursuant to subdivision (3) of this subsection (c).

(2) If disciplinary counsel believes there is evidence supporting the allegations against a judge, the counsel shall recommend to the investigative panel assigned to the case that the panel authorize a full investigation. Disciplinary counsel may also recommend a full investigation when it believes that there is evidence that would establish probable cause that a violation of § 17-5-302 has occurred and such evidence could be obtained by subpoena or further investigation. In all other cases, the disciplinary counsel must recommend that the matter be dismissed.

(3) The investigative panel shall review the disciplinary counsel's recommendations and either dismiss the complaint or authorize a full investigation. Disciplinary counsel shall not have the authority to dismiss a complaint without the review of and approval by the investigative panel.

(4) Where a judge retires or resigns and the disciplinary counsel is in possession of information that indicates criminal conduct by that judge, the disciplinary counsel shall transmit such information to the Tennessee bureau of investigation.

(1) Within thirty (30) days after the investigative panel authorizes a full investigation, disciplinary counsel shall give the following notice to the judge by certified mail:

(A) A specific statement of the allegations being investigated and the canons or rules allegedly violated, with the provision that the investigation can be expanded if appropriate;

(B) The judge's duty to respond;

(C) The judge's opportunity to meet with disciplinary counsel; and

(D) The name of the complainant, unless the investigative panel determines that there is good cause to withhold that information.

(2) The investigative panel may defer the giving of notice; however, notice must be given pursuant to this section before making a determination other than dismissal of the complaint.

(3) Disciplinary counsel may request that the judge file a written response within thirty (30) days after service of the notice.

(1) Upon the conclusion of the disciplinary counsel's investigation, disciplinary counsel may recommend to the investigative panel any or any combination of the following:

(A) Dismissal;

(B) Private reprimand, private censure, deferred discipline agreement, public reprimand, or public censure;

(C) The filing of formal charges;

(D) Referral to an appropriate agency; or

(E) A stay.

(2) The investigative panel may adopt, reject or modify the recommendations of disciplinary counsel. If the investigative panel finds a violation for which the imposition of discipline is not warranted, it may dismiss the complaint. If the investigative panel finds that there is reasonable cause to believe the judge committed a judicial offense:

(A) It may direct disciplinary counsel to file formal charges;

(B) It may propose any or a combination of the following:
private reprimand, private censure, deferred discipline agreement, public reprimand or public censure to the judge. If the judge consents, the investigative panel shall impose the discipline or implement the deferred discipline agreement; or

(C) If the judge does not consent to the proposed discipline or the deferred discipline agreement, the investigative panel may direct disciplinary counsel either to file formal charges or dismiss the complaint.

(f) In the event the investigative panel finds that there is reasonable cause to believe that the judge committed a judicial offense, and the investigative panel directs disciplinary counsel to file a formal charge, then from the filing of the formal charge forward, all records, actions and proceedings of the board shall be subject to the provisions of § 10-7-503 and title 8, chapter 44, except that the board may deliberate in private.

(g) Upon the filing of an indictment, presentment or information charging a judge with a felony under the law of any state or under federal law, the board may immediately place the judge on interim suspension.
