or permits.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 70-2-101(d)(2), is amended by deleting the word "Any" and by substituting instead the language "Except as provided by subdivision (d)(3), any".

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 70-2-101(d), is amended by adding a new subdivision (3) as follows:

(3) Any person whose commercial fishing license or commercial roe fisher permit has been revoked or whose privileges have been suspended, or both, may not be prohibited from being a commercial fisher or commercial roe fisher for a period beyond one (1) year from the date of the revocation or suspension.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 70-2-205(e)(1), is amended by adding the following language at the end of the first sentence:

If there are multiple offenses, the court shall not impose revocations to be concurrent so that the period of revocation of the license of the commercial fishing license or commercial roe fisher permit would be longer than such six (6) month period.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 70-2-205, is amended by adding a language as a new subsection (h):

(h) If a person has been issued a license pursuant to this section at any time within the past two (2) years, and the person's license or permit application had been timely filed for any renewal within such two-year period, then such person shall be entitled to purchase a license as a commercial fisher or obtain a permit as a commercial roe fisher.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
