

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 509

By Harwell

A RESOLUTION to commend Jason Scott Collver for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Jason Scott Collver is one such individual who has distinguished himself in his role as a legislative intern for the Office of the Chief Clerk of the Tennessee House of Representatives; Jason's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators he assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, born in Knoxville, Tennessee, on April 10, 1990, Jason is the son of Albert B. Collver and Sally J. Collver; and

WHEREAS, Jason attended Governor's School for International Studies at the University of Memphis in the summer of 2007, which first sparked his interest in the political system; and

WHEREAS, a student at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, where he is highly regarded by his peers, Jason has achieved academic success while majoring in political science and participating in numerous extracurricular activities, including the Boy Scouts of America and Lutheran Campus Ministries; and

WHEREAS, Jason is an Eagle Scout and continues an active role within the Boy Scouts of America, dedicating his time and many talents to serve as an Assistant Scout Master and Venture Crew Advisor for Troop/Crew 213; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Collver's future plans include attending both law and business school and giving back to the community; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee state government and to further his studies, Jason Collver brought his many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2011 session of the One Hundred Seventh General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2011 legislative session, Mr. Collver has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Collver has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby commend Jason Scott Collver for outstanding service as a legislative intern for the Office of the Chief Clerk of the Tennessee House of Representatives and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
