AMEND Senate Bill No. 108

House Bill No. 9*

By adding the following new subdivision (3) to the amendatory language of subsection (o) of SECTION 1:

(3) Any person or entity may request the department of safety to search its handgun permit holder database to determine if a named person has a Tennessee handgun carry permit as of the date of the request if the person or entity presents with the request a judgment of conviction, criminal history report, order of protection, or other official government document or record that indicates the named person is not eligible to possess a handgun carry permit under the requirements of § 39-17-1351.
