AMEND Senate Bill No. 1142*

House Bill No. 926

By deleting the language “The physician or psychologist shall possess a valid license to practice medicine, and shall be board certified or board eligible, or trained in the similar specialty as the health care provider who typically manages the medical condition or disease, or provides the health care service;” from the amendatory language of Section 3 and by substituting the following:

A physician shall possess a valid license to practice medicine and shall be board certified or board eligible, or trained in the similar specialty as the health care provider who typically manages the medical condition or disease, or provides the health care service. A psychologist shall possess a valid license or certificate and shall be board certified or board eligible, or trained in the similar specialty as the health care provider who typically manages the medical condition or disease, or provides the health care service;
