

HOUSE RESOLUTION 277

By Turner J

A RESOLUTION to commend Hannah Smith for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Hannah Smith is one such individual who distinguished herself in her role as a legislative intern for Representative Johnnie R. Turner; Hannah's work resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators she assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a student at the University of Memphis, where she is highly regarded by her peers, Hannah has achieved academic success while majoring in journalism and participating in numerous extracurricular activities, including an internship at the Wesley Foundation, a Christian-based student center; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize herself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee state government and to further her studies, Hannah Smith brought her many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2014 session of the One Hundred Eighth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2014 legislative session, Ms. Smith surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Hannah Smith performed her many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Hannah Smith for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Representative Johnnie R. Turner and extend to her our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
