AMEND Senate Bill No. 2279

House Bill No. 2102*

by adding the following new subdivision to be designated as (a)(1)(C)(ii) and redesignating accordingly:

(ii) If the court determines that a person has been arrested or charged due to mistaken identity and the court orders the expunction of the person's records as provided in subdivision (a)(1)(C)(i), the court shall also order that the person be compensated in the amount of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for the mental distress and anguish, loss of reputation in the community, financial loss, absence from employment, and any other damages resulting from the mistaken charge or arrest. The compensation ordered by the court pursuant to this subdivision (a)(1)(C)(ii) shall be paid by the treasurer from the criminal injuries compensation fund upon presentation by the mistakenly charged or arrested person of the court order to the treasurer.
