FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 396 – SB729

March 12, 2015

SUMMARY OF BILL: Waives the knowledge and skills exams for obtaining a Tennessee driver license for applicants with valid driver licenses from foreign countries, if the Department of Safety (DOS) has entered into a reciprocal memorandum of understanding with the foreign country and the applicant verifies residency.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- DOS confirms that there is no operational impact that will affect their expenditures.
- All driver license fees will be paid at time of application; therefore, no change in driver license fee revenue.
- Any reduction in departmental expenditures for DOS as a result of administering fewer knowledge and skills tests is considered to be not significant.
