

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 313

February 3, 2015

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the Governor to proclaim the first Saturday during the month of December each year as “The Day to Remember the Battle of Sugar Creek” to encourage commemoration of the Battle of Sugar Creek, the final Civil War battle fought in Tennessee, which took place at Appleton in Lawrence County.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- This day shall not be a legal holiday as defined in Tenn. Code Ann. § 15-1-101. Therefore, the fiscal impact to state government is not significant.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Jeffrey L. Spalding".

Jeffrey L. Spalding, Executive Director

/rnc