

SENATE RESOLUTION 152

By Tate

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Kevin Lee Taylor.

WHEREAS, the members of this legislative body were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Kevin Lee Taylor; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Taylor was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taylor was born to Estes Taylor, Sr., and Margaret E. Taylor on February 8, 1954, in Memphis. He later graduated from Melrose High School, Class of 1972; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Taylor served with acumen and alacrity as a self-employed master custom cabinet maker at Kevin's Custom Cabinets, in which position he earned the respect of his employees and customers alike for the exemplary quality of his work; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taylor was also deeply devoted to his family, and he always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order. He was affectionately known as "Kebo" to his friends and family and was called "Red" by his siblings; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Taylor was known as a hardworking, kind, friendly, and dependable man who was always willing to lend a helping hand; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taylor was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Estes Taylor, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Taylor will be remembered by his children, Keno Taylor, Jasmine Leon, and Oge Hullum; his granddaughters, Kaitlyn, Keshona, and Karla; his siblings, Mattie Taylor, Margaret Morman, James W. Taylor, Dorothy Taylor, Jacqueline A. Taylor, Robert E. Taylor, Gladys E. Taylor, Thomas A. Taylor, Maurice Taylor, and John E. Taylor; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends; and

WHEREAS, Kevin Taylor leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this legislative body should pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED TENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor the memory of Kevin Lee Taylor, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Taylor.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
