

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 16

January 29, 2017

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes persons convicted of infamous crimes to petition the court for a certificate of employability without petitioning for a restoration of citizenship.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenue – Exceeds $100

Increase Local Revenue – Exceeds $400

Assumptions:

- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-29-107(c), the petitioner is responsible for paying all costs for filing an application for a certificate of employability.
- Certificates of employability are classified as a category three civil action; therefore, costs and taxes are assessed pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 8-21-401(b)(1)(D), with a state litigation tax of $23.75, a local court fee of $100, and local litigation taxes and fees.
- Local litigation taxes and fees vary across jurisdictions; however, on average are estimated to be $30 per case.
- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-29-107, a petition for a certificate of employability is filed in conjunction with or subsequent to filing a petition for restoration of citizenship. If a certificate of employability is filed in conjunction with a petition for restoration of citizenship, no additional court costs or fees are assessed.
- Based on information provided by the court clerks, it is reasonably estimated that a minimum of three additional certificates for employability will be filed statewide independent of petitions filed for restoration of citizenship each year as a result of this legislation.
- The proposed legislation will result in a recurring increase in state revenue estimated to exceed $71 (3 certificates x $23.75 state litigation tax) and a recurring increase in local revenue estimated to exceed $390 [($100 category three civil action fee + $30 local litigation taxes and fees) x 3 certificates].

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Handwritten signature of Krista M. Lee in blue ink.

Krista M. Lee, Executive Director

/jrh