

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1054

By Southerland

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Mandy Lloyd on being named Hamblen County Supervisor of the Year.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pause to specially recognize those outstanding educators who have devoted their careers to providing the highest quality education for Tennessee's students; and

WHEREAS, Mandy Lloyd is one such estimable educator, who has distinguished herself as a professional of the greatest dedication, ability, and integrity; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lloyd was recently named Hamblen County Supervisor of the Year, a most befitting honor that recognizes the positive influence she has on so many young lives; and

WHEREAS, an educator for eighteen years, Mandy Lloyd is the supervisor of the Special Services Department, where she is responsible for special education parent referrals, medically fragile students, nursing and psychological services, school-based counseling, speech and language services, occupational therapy services, physical therapy services, special transportation requests, and surrogate parent services; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lloyd taught at John Hay Elementary School for twelve years and served as the assistant principal at Lincoln Heights Middle School for three years before being appointed to her supervisory role in 2017; and

WHEREAS, a product of Hamblen County schools, she received her associate degree from Walters State Community College and her bachelor's degree in elementary education from Carson-Newman University; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lloyd is an extremely talented and compassionate educator who works assiduously to motivate all students to reach their full potential, both as scholars and as citizens; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lloyd serves as an inspiration to her colleagues, and her friendship and counsel are highly valued by those who are fortunate to know her; and

WHEREAS, her many professional accomplishments aside, Mandy Lloyd is most appreciative of the love and support she shares with her son, Ryan; and

WHEREAS, Mandy Lloyd truly epitomizes the dedicated educator who is wholly committed to the highest ideals of public service and quality education for all, and she should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED ELEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate Mandy Lloyd on being named Hamblen County Supervisor of the Year, commend her exceptional service to the children of Tennessee, salute her professional expertise and personal excellence, and wish her all the best in her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
