

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL MEMORANDUM

SB 611 - HB 973

February 23, 2019

SUMMARY OF ORIGINAL BILL: Creates a Class A misdemeanor offense of persuading or influencing, by means other than coercion, a witness or prospective witness in a domestic abuse case to testify falsely, withhold truthful testimony information, or elude legal process.

FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT (004573): Deletes and replaces the effective date of the bill to make the proposed legislation effective July 1, 2019.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENT:

Unchanged from the original fiscal note.

Assumptions for the bill as amended:

- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 39-11-106(3), coercion means a threat, however communicated to: (1) commit an offense; (2) wrongfully accuse any person of any offense; (3) expose any person to hatred, contempt or ridicule; (4) harm the credit or business repute of any person; or (5) take or withhold action as a public servant or cause a public servant to take or withhold action.
- The proposed legislation creates a Class A misdemeanor offense in a domestic abuse case where a witness is persuaded or influenced by means other than coercion to testify falsely, withhold truthful testimony information, or elude legal process.
- Any increase in caseloads to trial courts can be accommodated within existing resources without an increased appropriation or reduced reversion.
- There will not be a sufficient number of prosecutions for state or local government to experience any significant increase in revenue or expenditures.
