SUMMARY OF ORIGINAL BILL: Changes, from 14 to 21, the number of calendar days in which a hearing requested by a police officer who has been dismissed, demoted, suspended, or transferred for punitive reasons must be set following the request.

FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT (018262): Adds language to the legislation to require a law enforcement officer to give a verbal warning to the person, prior to firing a weapon unless that person poses an immediate threat to life or safety.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENT:

Unchanged from the original fiscal note.

Assumptions for the bill as amended:

- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 38-8-305(a), a police officer who is dismissed, demoted, suspended or transferred for punitive reasons, may within a reasonable amount of time following such action, as set by the officer's agency, request a hearing. If such request is made in a timely manner, a hearing shall be held within a reasonable amount of time set by the agency. The hearing shall be set no later than 14 calendar days following the date of request, unless a later date is acceptable to the police officer.
- Increasing to timeframe by which a hearing is to be set by one week will not result in a significant impact to state or local government expenditures.
- According to the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department Manual (section 11-10-130), an officer, where feasible, should identify themselves as police and give verbal warning of imminent deadly force the use of deadly force if the officer has probable cause to believe that the individual to be arrested poses a threat of death or serious bodily injury, either to the employee or to others unless immediately apprehended.
- It is assumed that other law enforcement agencies have similar guidelines. Thus, this legislation will not result in a significant increase in state or local expenditures.
