

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

CORRECTED FISCAL NOTE

HB 544 – SB 1293

March 10, 2019

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the Fiscal Review Committee (FRC) to consider and determine appeals of fiscal notes. Requires the FRC to develop and adopt a formal, written procedure for appeals of fiscal notes that includes: the requirements for filing an appeal and time for consideration of the appeal; the burden of proof; the right to offer written and oral arguments; the number of fiscal notes that may be appealed by a member per session; and the time for issuing an order on the appeal.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

On February 10, 2019, a fiscal note was issued with an incorrect assumption based on committee testimony. The estimated fiscal impact is unchanged, but the assumptions have been updated.

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Corrected assumptions:

- On November 28, 2018, the FRC adopted a fiscal note and fiscal memorandum appeal process for the 111th General Assembly. The process is to remain in effect until altered or rescinded by the FRC.
- The current appeal process does not satisfy the requirements of the proposed legislation.
- The Fiscal Review Committee chairman will appoint a committee or subcommittee to hear all fiscal note appeals.
- It is assumed the chairman will appoint a subcommittee that will be able to meet on days which the General Assembly is already scheduled to meet and will not result in additional travel or per diem for subcommittee members. Therefore, any fiscal impact to the FRC or the General Assembly is estimated to be not significant.
