

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HJR 748

February 11, 2020

SUMMARY OF BILL: Reaffirms that Tennessee is a sanctuary for the right of law-abiding citizens to keep and bear arms. Extends a safe harbor to Virginians and other United States citizens whose constitutional rights are being violated by elected officials. Asserts that Tennessee will not comply with extra-constitutional actions from any government. Recognizes that citizens must be able to keep and bear arms that are at least equal to those of their government's basic infantry unit, which includes semi-automatic AR-15s, AK-47s, and similar firearms.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Article 1, Section 26 of the Tennessee Constitution states, "That the citizens of this state have a right to keep and to bear arms for their common defense; but the Legislature shall have power, by law, to regulate the wearing of arms with a view to prevent crime."
- Pursuant to the Second Amendment of the United States Constitution, "A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed."
- Reaffirming that Tennessee is a sanctuary for the right of law-abiding citizens to keep and bear arms will not have a significant impact on state revenue or expenditures.
