by deleting Section 1 in its entirety and by substituting instead the following language:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-1-131, is amended by deleting from subdivision (2) the word and punctuation "prescribes," and by substituting instead the word and punctuation "prescribes.," and is further amended by adding at the end of the existing language the following:

If the adjudication of delinquency was for an offense involving first degree murder, second degree murder, rape, aggravated rape, aggravated robbery, especially aggravated robbery, kidnapping, aggravated kidnapping, especially aggravated kidnapping, aggravated assault, or felony reckless endangerment, and if school attendance is a condition of probation, or if the child is to be placed in the custody of a state agency and is to be placed in school by a state agency or by a contractor of the state agency, the court shall make a finding of whether or not the principal of the child's school should be notified. If the court orders notification, the court shall enter an order directing the youth service officer, probation officer, or the state agency if the child has been committed to the custody of the state agency, to notify in writing the school principal of the nature of the offense and probation requirements, if any, related to school attendance, within five (5) days of the order or before the child resumes or begins school attendance, whichever occurs first. Such information shall be shared only with employees of the school having responsibility for classroom instruction of the child, but such information is otherwise confidential and shall not be shared by
