by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

Section 1. After the health facilities commission approves an application by a health care facility for additional beds, any entity that appeals the approval shall be liable for all costs, including attorneys fees associated with such appeal, if such appeal is not successful.

Section 2. The provisions of this act are declared to be remedial in nature, and the provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes. To that end, the provisions of this act shall apply to any matter on appeal from the health facilities commission that is pending on the effective date of this act.

Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
