AMEND Senate Bill No. 2795*

House Bill No. 2758

by deleting the amendatory language of Section 1 and by substituting instead the following:

(b) If the child is found to be delinquent, the court shall determine if any monetary damages actually resulted from the child's delinquent conduct. Upon a determination that monetary damages resulted from such conduct, the court shall order the child to make restitution for such damages unless the court further determines that the specific circumstances of the individual case render such restitution, or a specified portion thereof, inappropriate.

AND FURTHER AMEND by adding the following new section immediately preceding the last section and by renumbering the subsequent section accordingly:

Section _____. In order to further expand the provision of restitution in juvenile court proceedings, the Tennessee Commission on Children and Youth shall review existing, nationally recognized restitution programs and mentioning programs and shall report its findings and recommendations to the Select Committee on Children and Youth on or before January 20, 1997, for further consideration by the One Hundredth General Assembly.
