

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 21, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 790

This bill, if enacted, will increase the penalty for evading arrest from a Class A misdemeanor to a Class E felony.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be a maximum increase in recurring state expenditures of $51,348* for incarceration. This estimate is based upon 12 convictions annually for a Class E felony receiving a one year sentence with 30% or 110 days actually being served at a cost of $38.90 per day.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

**Section 9-6-119, TCA, requires that: For any law enacted after July 1, 1986, which results in a net increase in periods of imprisonment in state facilities, there shall be appropriated from recurring revenues the estimated operating cost of such law.*
